

“GPOP is dedicated to elevating the level of expertise held by governance and president’s office professionals in Canadian post-secondary education institutions. It provides networking, mentoring and other professional development opportunities that benefit individual members and their institutions.”

Eligibility

- Individuals who provide administrative and governance support to the Board or President of any Canadian college, institution, cégep, university, or other organization specifically in the Canadian post-secondary education sector.

Consents

By completing this application, the applicant agrees:

- To allow any photographs, videos and/or recordings taken at any GPOP event with their image to be published for promotional purposes in future print materials, on the GPOP website and/or social media sites.
- To be contacted by the association and its members, directly or through the National listserv, regarding GPOP-related business, commercial or otherwise, by email or the contact information provided on this form.
- That professional development activities, and in particular the annual conference, will focus on governance topics and topics relevant to those supporting Presidents.
